

INSTITUTE FOR CATHOLIC STUDIES IN PARTNERSHIP WITH FRANCISCAN

ICSF 519 The Ecclesial Nature & Mission of Theology

This course introduces the student to the graduate study of sacred theology by examining the nature and mission of theology as an ecclesial vocation, in light of the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith's 1990 document, "Instruction on the Ecclesial Vocation of the Theologian" (Donum Veritatis). The nature of theology is examined as a "science" in the classical sense, that is, an intellectual habit in which certitude is available through rational reflection, in the light of faith, on divine revelation. The student will be formed in the fundamental dispositions and tools requisite to the responsible and academic pursuit of graduate theological studies.

This tuition-based course will be a blended class offering online instruction with only three on-campus classes required.

Mondays from 6—9 p.m.
Jan 22, Feb 12 & Mar 12, 2018

Course-registration levels: M.A., Diploma, and Faith Enrichment.

FOR MORE INFO
CONTACT:

Kathryn Klein DeNinno

Phone: 941-766-7334

Fax: 941-629-8555

E-mail: deninno@institute-dov.org

Website: <http://institute-dov.org>

Fr. Matthew J. Grady received his STL in Biblical Theology from The Pontifical University of St. Thomas Aquinas in Rome. He currently serves as the Administrator for Incarnation Parish and as chaplain and instructor at Cardinal Mooney Catholic High School in Sarasota, FL. He also serves as chaplain for Ringling School of Design and New College of Florida. He is assistant director of Missions for the Diocese of Venice. Grady also serves on the board of the Literacy Council of Sarasota.

